Patriotic feelings hold sway at Laxman Public

■ Students from 23 schools of Delhi enthusiastically participated in different competitions

HT Correspondent

NEW DELHI: Laxman Public School, Hauz Khas, invoked the feelings of patriotism by organising Smriti Seep: Laxman Memorial Interschool Competition 2016.

Students from 23 prestigious schools of Delhi enthusiastically participated in English poetry recitation, Hindi poetry recitation, Sanskrit shlok recitation, on the spot painting competition, Quark science quiz and Innovatrix mathematical model making competition. Students were at their creative best as they expressed their feelings as true Indian patriots through colours. Their paintings showcased how the aura of patriotism illuminates our country and our homes.

Students exhibited their scientific, creative and innovative skills at Innovatrix. Participants' efforts and dedication were seen in various models based on different concepts of mathematical principles studied at the secondary level.

The chief guest, D K Bhawsar, deputy chief education advisor, dept of school education and literacy, ministry of HRD, blessed the students and felicitated the winners. He also highlighted the role of a teacher as facilitator. The HoS congratulated all the participants, principals and teachers. She said that competition is an effective motivation and important for the overall development to meet the challenges of life. The overall trophy was bagged by The Air Force School, Lodhi Road.
