Q4. Learn the following poem for recitation test in January-

"You and I"

- They say the eagle is a bird
That sees some splendid sights
When he roars high into the sky
Upon his dizzy flight
He sees the ground for miles around
Our house, and Billy Johnson's
But we cannot be eagles, for
That would, of course, be nonsense.
- But you and I, some summer day, providing we're allowed,
Will go up in an aero plane
And sail right through a cloud
But, if they say we may not go,
We'll stay upon the ground
With other things that have no wings, and watch them walk around.
- They say to fly so very high
Is not exactly pleasant
They say to go deep down below
Is not quite safe at present.
But you and I don't care for that
And, if there's time for spending
When work is done is done, we'll have our fun, by simply just pretending.

-C.J. Dennis
