20 schools and 200 delegates made the programme a success

MOCK UN CONFERENCE HELD AT LAXMAN PUBLIC SCHOOL, HAUZ KHAS

A mock UN conference was held at Laxman Public School, Hauz Khas. As many as 20 schools and 200 delegates made the programme a great success. The conference started with a tribute to Atal Bihari Vajpayee and Kofi Annan. This was followed by words of encouragement by the HoS D N Tiwari to all the delegates. The conference was declared open by secretary-general Mohit Gupta. The five committees - General Assembly, Security Council, Stakeholders' Meet, Human Rights Council and Council of Lemuria - put up agendas of funding of UNO, the threat of misuse of military arsenal by Pakistan, secularism in Indian Constitution, human rights and accommodation of minorities, respectively. DPS Rohini bagged the best delegation award. A vote of thanks was given by the Head Boy of the school.
