

LEADERSHIP CAMP FOR CLASS XI 2025-26

Laxman Public School organised a leadership camp for the students of Class XI, 2025-26 batch from April 15 to April 23, 2025. The objective of the camp was to create awareness, empathy and leadership skills among the participants.

The camp aimed to sensitively address various social issues, promote inclusivity, and empower students to become effective leaders and agents of positive change within their communities. The primary objectives of the camp were to inspire and empower students to take proactive initiative towards addressing social challenges and making positive impact within their communities.

The camp featured interactive workshops and discussions facilitated by experts and guest speakers on various social issues. Topics included gender equality, personality development, mental health, cyber bullying, awareness about POCSO Act, diversity and inclusion and new age careers in India and overseas. These workshops aimed to broaden student perspectives, foster empathy and promote critical thinking on pressing societal issues.

Through experiential learning activities, role-plays and group discussions, students were equipped with practical tools and strategies to become confident and empathetic leaders.

Outdoor activities and team-building exercises were designed to promote collaboration, trust and camaraderie among participants. Throughout the camp, participants engaged in reflection sessions to process their learning experiences, identify personal growth areas and set goals for future leadership endeavours. Facilitators guided students in developing action plans to translate their newfound knowledge and skills into meaningful actions.

Head of School, Seema Bharti Mishra played a pivotal role in fostering encouragement and motivation among the students. Her steadfast support and enthusiasm acted as a catalyst, encouraging active participation and maximising the learning opportunities available. Under her guidance students felt empowered to uncover their capabilities, tackle challenges head-on and cultivate crucial leadership aptitudes.

Quiz Wizards of Jain Bharati Mrigavati Vidyalaya

The quiz wizards of Jain Bharati Mrigavati Vidyalaya once again proved their credentials as a force to reckon with as they participated in SBI Scholar Quiz 2025. SBI organised the quiz in an effort to equip students with skills such as financial literacy and awareness about investments and money. The competition featured two challenging rounds. In the preliminary written round, 123 teams participated, out of which only six advanced to the on-stage city finale. Among the finalists were JMV's sharp and determined quizzers, Kriti (Class XII-Lotus) and Aksh Anand (Class X-Jasmine). Demonstrating exceptional intellect, keen memory, and unwavering curiosity, the talented duo triumphed in the Delhi City Finale, emerging as city champions after a thrilling contest of minds. Their remarkable achievement earned them a cash prize of ₹50,000 each, along with a ₹50,000 award for Vidyalaya, and ₹25,000 for their teacher coordinator, Anu Kumari. In addition, they also received individual trophies, a school trophy, and Certificates of Appreciation. The victorious team will now represent Delhi State at the National Finals in Mumbai.

Teachers' Empowerment to sensitize for Environment

A capacity building program for teachers was successfully conducted at Arwachin Bharti Bhawan Sr. Sec. School on May 17, 2025, focusing on professional development and innovative teaching strategies. The topic "Environment Education and Conservation of Natural Resources" went well with the current need of the environment and Mother Earth. The session, attended by faculty members and other teachers from CBSE was organized by the CBSE and was enriched by eminent resource person, Pankaj Munjal. The workshop aimed to sensitize teachers towards environment and eco-friendly methods, also to equip teachers with the latest educational methodologies, classroom management techniques, and ways to integrate technology into their teaching practices. The interactive sessions included hands-on activities, group discussions, and case studies, which were well-received by the participants.

School Director Dr. Urmila Sharma addressed the gathering and emphasized the importance of continuous learning for educators. Hos Saumya A Sharma reiterated that workshops like these help us grow as teachers and ensure our students receive the best learning experience possible. School Chairman Anurup Sharma highlighted the need to be aware and spread awareness so that our desires are limited and we take care of nature as a parent. Teachers appreciated the opportunity to learn and share ideas, and expressed interest in more such sessions in the future.

Igniting Young Imaginations at SVISG

As part of the Literary Week celebrations at Sadhu Vaswani International School for Girls, a vibrant and interactive creative writing workshop was conducted on May 7, 2025 for students of Classes VI to VIII. The session was led by Vandana Tandon, a passionate educator known for her innovative approach to storytelling and writing. The workshop aimed to spark creativity and enhance literary expression among the students, and it delivered just that—through a series of engaging activities, thought-provoking prompts, and imaginative writing exercises.

She encouraged the young participants to dive into the world of words, build vivid characters, and craft compelling stories from their own experiences and ideas. The students enthusiastically participated. The atmosphere buzzed with excitement as they shared their creations, received personalized feedback, and discovered the joy of creative self-expression.

The session proved to be a memorable highlight of the Literary Week, leaving the students inspired, more confident in their writing skills, and eager to explore the limitless possibilities of their imagination.

O Sing, O Muse, an Ode to the Unsung

*O sing, O Muse, an ode to the unsung—
The forgotten, the lost, the ones unheard,
Stories untold, unvoiced by any tongue;
These myths, once lost to time, shall now
be heard.
Begin with the peasant who starves,
un clothed,
In poverty, despair, and bitter ire;
Then speak of a hero who fate hath loathed,
Who lost his soul to war's consuming fire.
Remember the mothers who sacrificed,
The suffering masses, the weight of war,
The gone, the scared, the brothers
who enticed
Hope from each other, huddled on death's floor:
No longer do their marks remain on earth—
Our voices shall become their home and heart.*

PERFECTION

*I'm tired of being the perfect child
Tired of having it all figured out
Maybe if you cared for once
I wouldn't even doubt
How do I explain it to you
That everything is not just a phase
Repeating myself again and again,
I was just left in a daze.
I know it's a lot for you but you could have asked how my day was
I would pour my heart out
but maybe it's my loss.
You didn't have time for me
I get it but the thing is
You didn't have time just for me
And that's what I miss.
Forget it, I'm sorry
I'm sorry for everything.
Maybe it's all figured out but I can't seem to see it clear
what if I'm at fault
And just don't want to face my fear.*

Friendship: A Timeless Tie

*Friendship is a bond so true,
With no fears to cloud the view.
Through highs and lows, we always stay,
Making memories along the way.
From silly fights and careless days,
To learning love in quiet ways.
We once took each other light,
Now we see the bond so bright.
Though we're in different paths or streams,
We still share thoughts, our hopes, our dreams.
You're a blessing, pure and rare—
