

Hindustan

NEW DELHI
MONDAY
SEPTEMBER 01, 2025

Times

The conference witnessed participation from more than 150 delegates from various schools

Laxman Public School, Hauz Khas, organises LaxMUN 2025 conference with enthusiasm

NEW DELHI: Laxman Public School, Hauz Khas, organised LaxMUN 2025 on the topic, Forging Peace in a Fractured World, on its premises, marking the long-awaited return of its flagship diplomatic conference in its full in-person format. The conference witnessed an overwhelming participation from more than 150 delegates from various schools in Delhi.

The event was graced by managing committee member Bharat Agarwal, manager BM Mudgal, and Head of School (HoS) Seema Bharti Mishra. The HoS inaugurated the conference, where she emphasized the art of listening and understanding others' perspectives and trying to build bridges and not walls.

The theme of the event was explored through meaningful debates in the UNGA, UNHRC and Stakeholders' Meet committees.

The conference concluded with a prize distribution ceremony, where every participant delegate was presented with an eco-friendly hamper made from recycled paper, reaffirming the event's commitment to sustainability.

The HoS congratulated all the winners and shared her reflections on the significance of such platforms in empowering the youth. The event concluded with a vote of thanks proposed by the event's director.