Honouring a commitment to holistic learning

Laxman Public School, Hauz Khas, was conferred the Best School for Holistic Student Development Award at the 46th World Management Congress 2025, held at the India International Centre, New Delhi.

The award, received under the leadership of Seema Bharti Mishra, head of school, recognises the school's sustained commitment to holistic education, academic excellence, values-based learning, and the overall development of students.

Teachers Renuka Sharma, Himani Goindi, Shivi Mehrotra, and Konika Sanyal were also individually awarded for their dedicated contributions.

This achievement reflects the collective efforts of the entire school community.
