

SCHOOL REPORTS

Laxman Public School, Hauz Khas, organises annual MUN conference on 'Peace Across Borders'

NEW DELHI: Laxman Public School, Hauz Khas, successfully organised its annual Model United Nations (MUN) conference, LaxMUN 2026, on the theme 'Peace Across Borders.' The conference brought together over 250 delegates from 17 reputed schools across Delhi.

The conference commenced with a formal opening ceremony, featuring the school song and a presentation celebrating courage and peace. Addressing the gathering, school principal Seema Bharti Mishra and Secretary-General Shreshtha Singh declared the conference open, emphasising the importance of constructive dialogue, international cooperation, and responsible leadership, thereby setting the tone for two days of insightful deliberations.

Delegates participated in sessions across the committees such as the United Nations General Assembly, United Nations Security Council (UNSC), United Nations Human Rights Council, Stakeholders' Meet, and International Press. Discussions focused on significant issues, including the future of the New START

The annual MUN conference brought together more than 250 delegates from 17 reputed schools across Delhi

Treaty, geopolitical tensions in the Strait of Hormuz, the human rights situation in Afghanistan with emphasis on women's rights, and educational policy reforms in India.

A major highlight of the event was the launch of the official LaxMUN

Journal, Concordia, during the closing ceremony.

The publication documented the committee proceedings, insightful debates, diverse perspectives, & the spirit of diplomacy displayed throughout the event.

The event concluded with a valedictory and prize distribution ceremony, where the participants were recognised for excellence in diplomacy, research, negotiation, leadership, journalism, photography, and creative expression.